Music in the Mornings Visual Arts Curriculum Guide Order Form

In response to teachers' concerns regarding their limited opportunities to offer visual arts curriculum, the education staff at Britt Festivals created curriculum that could be used as an additional layer to the Music in the Mornings™ listening program. All of the art projects in this book are done in five minutes or less each day, adding up to a 25-minute lesson plan accomplished in five consecutive days WHILE students listen to the classical music selections in the Music in the Mornings™ curriculum.

The book has 21 lesson plans, with an easy reference guide to Brummit-Taylor's Music Listening Program: A Non-Directed Approach.
